DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 67 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The specification, as originally filed, does not provide support for adjust both of the tilt angles simultaneously as is now claimed.

- The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- Claims 31, 36 and 67 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dourte et al. (*913).

To the extent the claims are supported by the original specification, Dourte et al discloses a multifaceted mirror structure having a plurality of mirror facets (28), wherein the mirror facets are formed by recessing or machining a reflecting optical surface into or on the mirror facet (see column 12, lines 38-42), wherein the optical surface has a tilting angle (see figures 7, 8 and 13-22), wherein the tilting angle is the angle between the normals of the optical surface and the base or reference surface of the mirror facet and wherein the mirror facets includes a screw (36) which is capable of holding and adjusting the position of the mirror facet, note figures 6-22 along with the associated description thereof, except for explicitly stating that the tilting angle has an accuracy of less than 3 are seconds.

Application/Control Number: 10/563,701

It is well known to machine or position an optical element to an accuracy of less than 3 arc seconds in the same field of endeavor for the purpose of obtaining a tilt angle of interest.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the tilt angle of Dourte et al to include an accuracy of less than 3 arc seconds in order to meet user specifications. Note: In re Kuhle, 188 USPQ 7 (CCPA 1975).

As to the limitations of claim 67, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to adjust at least two of the tilting angles of mirror facets of Dourte et al simultaneously, either by hand or by a mechanical or automatic means in order to expedite the processing and/or assembling thereof at reduced costs. Note: In re Venner, 120 USPQ 192

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event,

Application/Control Number: 10/563,701

Art Unit: 2872

however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
